Questionnaire for the 1960 Census of Population and Agriculture

Dear Householder,

Thank you for your co-operation in providing the information you have already given to the Census enumerator.

You will see that questions about your dwelling are on the next page and that questions concerning yourself and each person in your household are on the following pages.

Please never skip a question just because it does not seem to apply. After you complete the form please check it over to make sure you have not missed anything.

The Law requires that Census employees must hold all information which you give them in strictest confidence. The statistics published from this Census will not reveal any individual information and the information you furnish cannot be used for purposes of taxation investigation or regulation.

Please deliver the completed questionnaire to the Census enumerator who will call on you on Sunday the 11th December, 1960 or as soon as possible after that date.

Sincerely yours,

SIMOS VASSILIOU,
Superintendent of the Census.

CONFIDENTIAL : This Census is taken under Law No. 10 of 1946 and has further been authorised by Order in Council No. 3141 of 7th July, 1960. The Law requires that the questions be answered completely and accurately and guarantees that the information furnished will be accorded confidential treatment. The information given on this questionnaire cannot be used for purposes of taxation investigation or regulation.
